START 1000 HRS

GENERAL UPDATES - GS

- AH – just a quick, informal check-in; just a pulse check and stats for SitReps
- Relatively quiet last night, and so far this morning

LEGAL SITE

- 15 pass vehicle
- 15 RV(s)
- 1 horse trailer
- 1 combine with flag
- 1 crane with flag
- 1 tent

CCMG

- Report on site there are
 - 6 adults
 - 2 children
 - 2 horses
- That might be light, if people are still in trailers
- CCMG has certainly engaged them, they love us and our members coming through in uniform
- One strategy is to send more members so we have conversations, friendly interaction
- Thinking about proceeding with some downsizing as we move forward
- CCMG group is asking when we leave; the other half are more hardline – the softer side protestors are asking when to leave; the hardline protestors are saying nothing
 - Wouldn't want to poke the bear
 - Will leave that determination to Gold Commander

DETAINED PERSONS

- Update regarding the lady we detained, yelling in cells, behaviour issues
 - Will be released soon
 - If we can make her life easier, if we're able to transport her to Calgary where more services are available, we will try to facilitate that;
 - She is currently without a vehicle; her vehicle is in Lethbridge and it is no longer registered and also not insured
 - She is quite vocal
 - TD – with regard to Personal, on her sheet it indicates threat and suicide by cop

- Please make sure that “T” sheet is up to date and accurate before she is released

OTHER PROVINCIAL ACTIVITIES - GS

- Around the province – I don’t want to hard all of the resources in case there are issues in Edmonton
 - Still have the 5 tow trucks here, would like to have them stay
 - 1 heavy, 2 medium and 2 light tow trucks
 - We still have one heavy hauler with EPS and 1 medium with CPS – intention is to keep here until tomorrow night; keeping in mind the slow roll in Edmonton
- TASK – someone in DEOC please reach out to EPS and CPS to ask if they need their tow vehicles back or if we can keep for a couple more days
 - TD – please confirm - is that EPS or COE?
 - GS – that’s COE, not EPS
 - Also, there is a very knowledgeable person attached to the heavy hauler that would take that unit back so we would lose that person resource
 - He has been teaching our people a lot
 - AH – KK came down this morning and said we should reach into Edmonton – our intention was to speak with them and get a sense of their needs, so it’s on our radar
 - Also, of note, if there is a concern about today or this afternoon – the truck is over 3 hours away
- 3 people went onto FB to push their cause
 - The post basically reiterated that this is not over, they indicated the need to come together and that the fight is not over, Edmonton and Milk River mentioned
 - Names are known; members here are aware of these individuals, age range is approximately 25-30-ish, quite wealthy
 - Regarding the camp itself
 - They are well-resourced
 - Yesterday a SK farmer came in with a lot of dollars
 - They are financed quite well in cash, apparently the farmer brought straight cash so there is a pot of money on site
 - They also have a lot of food and water and so they have a lot of resources available
 - TD – it’s amazing that a relatively small group is so well-resourced; those light standards they have are quite something
 - So when the farmer came on site, they went off to the side and our group did not hear any specifics of that interaction
 - The three people who posted on Facebook
 - Personal Info. [REDACTED]
 - [REDACTED]
 - [REDACTED]
 - AH – they’re known on social media as [REDACTED] Per [REDACTED]

- SJ – we have the video here – it was posted late last night
- GS – it’s not over – there are still movements trying to move forward and that group could be dangerous
- GS - These networks are continuing to try to generate support

ROUND TABLE

- AH – this to say, today just wanted to check in, get a sense of the vibe there; there is nothing from this end
 - DCAS is aware that if they get any sense that there is any activity in terms of convoy or slow roll heading towards Coutts, that it is to be treated as time sensitive
 - We had a good meeting yesterday to plan resources going forward to confirm what you have and what you need, going forward as we dial down; we’re basically planned out until March 4th
 - We still have those extra hotel rooms – 10 extra – secured in Lethbridge in case a bunch of protestors came in and snatched up
- GW made a good point that it’s really a drop in the bucket compared to other costs so we’re hanging on to those until Monday
 - GS – come Monday, kind of looking at scaling down
 - If we’re going to scale down, perhaps we should look at shifting to Raymond (detachment)
 - IBET used to be there and they do have a board room
 - That way we could give CBSA back their space
 - Just don’t want to overstay; it might be a good time to transition
 - AH – from my perspective, it would be a decision at your level and something to communicate to Gold; something TD may have already discussed with KK
 - GS – if we get a green light to reduce, we would look at shifting to Raymond; with our current numbers, we’re not able to fit there
 - AH – per our meeting – current resources as planned, Tuesday-Wednesday-Thursday, we’d reduce to 10 and no night shift, then increase to 15 day and also have night shift for Thursday-Friday-Saturday
 - I think if you make the decision and advise Gold, it’s operationally your call
 - AH – ATIP in reference to wound
 - Believe was forwarded to LM;
 - An apparent assault on members
 - Unsure whether that falls to Aaron’s side or another side
 - The ATIP will come back to you
 - TD – might have been dealt with by Milk River
 - AH- it will be coming back to you
 - AH – yesterday’s planning meeting was a big deal to allow us to look forward
 - GS – very important going forward will be DCAS intelligence-gathering
 - We need to heavily focus on that days and into the evenings;
 - Getting awareness of unknowns

- AH - 360 degree security hats on – the known group – security moves to looking outward rather than inward; but also there could be some chirps on social media that he's coming down to start a =civil war – it's more of a concern to get a sense of who's coming in versus who remains
- GS – TASK reminder re tow
- AH – aim for informal check in tomorrow
 - GS – 1000 hrs tomorrow works good and so if you can send an invite for then, that would work for us; we'll give you a sense of what's happening here then
